

Horn Fair song

Vers. Fernando Reyes

Sussex song-25 july (St. James day)

Anom.

Vox principalis

1.As I was a - walk - ing one fine sum - mer morn. So
2."Now take me up be - hind you fair maid for to ride", "Oh
3."If you would see Horn Fair you must walk on your way, I
4."O fai - rest of dam - sels, how can you say no? With

1.As I was a - walk - ing one fine sum - mer morn. So
2."Now take me up be - hind you fair maid for to ride", "Oh
3."If you would see Horn Fair you must walk on your way, I
4."O fai - rest of dam - sels, how can you say no? With soft was the wind and the waves on the corn. I no andthen, Oh no, for my mammy she would chide, And will not let you ride on my grey mare to - day, You'd you I do in - tend to Horn Fair for to go, We'll soft was the wind and the waves on the corn. I no andthen, oh no, for my mammy she would chide, and will not let you ride on my grey mare to - day, You'd you I do in - tend to Horn Fair for to go, We'll met a pret - ty dam - sel u - pon a grey mare, and then my dear old dad - dy would beat me full sore, and rum - ple all my mus - lin and un - curl my hair, and join the best of com - pa - ny when we do get there, With

met a pret - ty dam - sel u - pon a grey mare, and then my dear old dad - dy would beat me full sore, and rum - ple all my mus - lin and un - curl my hair, and join the best of com - pa - ny when we do get there, With

she was a - rid - ding up - on a - grey mare.
 ne - ver let me ride on his grey mare no more".
 leave me all dis - trest to be seen at Horn Fair."
 horns on their heads, boys, the fi - nest at the Fair."

she was a - rid - ding up - on a - grey mare.
 ne - ver let me ride on his grey mare no more".
 leave me all dis - trest to be seen at Horn Fair."
 horns on their heads, boys, the fi - nest at the Fair."